Around each stick figure, write some words describing how each person might feel AFTER the photo is shared. How has the impact on the three individuals involved changed if no one challenges this?

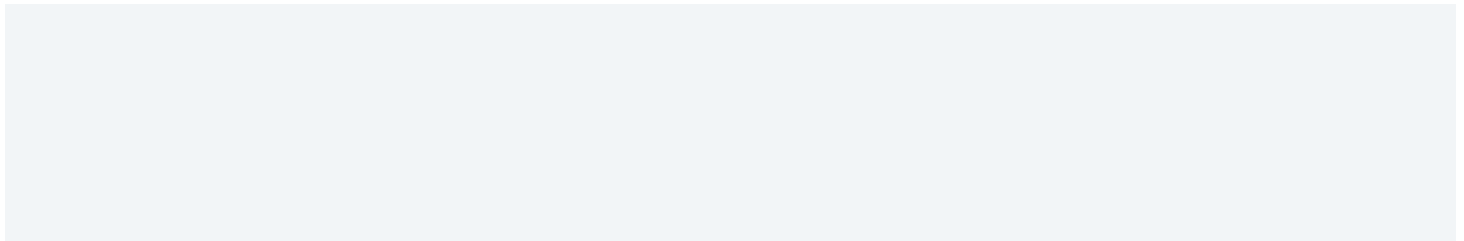

Around each stick figure, extending from your second set of notes, show how each person might feel IF the friend is called out for sharing the photo. What do the practical consequences of intervening look like and feel like for those involved?

Why do you think your friend shared the picture with you?

Is it a big deal to share the photo of the girl your friend sends you? Why or why not?

What should someone do if they are sent a nude picture of a person who did not consent to this sharing?
